Noida-based Canna Essentials has launched India’s first hemp iOS mobile App. This easy and user-friendly App is compatible with all the iOS versions. It has all the features like a wishlist and orders the products with online or COD payment method. It provides its customer 24x7 customer support and makes life hassle-free. This app is one stop for all the healthy, organic and natural products. As one can compare and buy the best health product according to one’s needs. All individuals from fitness freaks to youngsters to elderly people can add hemp as a part of their daily routine to boost their immunity and keep themselves healthy.

“A unique platform that brings hemp sellers and consumers from all corners of the country under one roof. That’s the USP of our app. Hemp’s use as food, fuel, and medicine is not new to the world. Its origin in India and around the globe dates back to thousands of years. Unfortunately, nothing significant has happened in the hemp industry in the recent past. We are working towards helping people explore the health benefits offered by this super plant,” said Rishav Raj, CEO and the brain behind Canna Essentials.

Canna Essentials strives to bring the purest, safest, and most eco-friendly products in the wellness industry. They are dedicated to promoting health and wellness through their wide range of plant-based, non-GMO, Cruelty-free, Non-GMP products.

In this e-commerce marketplace, consumers get the power to choose from a wide variety of products. Canna Essentials provides various vegan Product Brands an opportunity to get their products listed on their website like Ayurvedic Essentials, Boheco life, Health Horizons, Februss Organics, Dr Vaidya’s, Satvik Spirit, Cure By Design, Nomh Foods, Happy Puppy, India Hemp Organics, Amayra Naturals to showcase their products.

Every product listed on their website is a third-party laboratory tested to ensure quality and purity. Canna Essentials truly believes in the full potential of Hemp extract and its multiple medicinal and therapeutic benefits.

Canna Essentials is adhering to the highest safety standards to ensure their customers remain safe while having a delightful experience and promise to come up with more and healthy and nutritious products for consumers in the future. The stigma attached to the consumption of cannabis/hemp has always pushed investors and businesses away from investing in the hemp market. However, with companies like Canna Essentials striving to break the taboo attached to hemp, the country may witness the revival of the cannabis/hemp industry.
