India needs more nutrition leaders who can make a positive impact

Founded in 2021, India’s first business school to provide online certification courses exclusively in Nutrition Science, Marketing, and Business Management- Institute of Nutrition Leadership (INL) has partnered with The Health Sciences Academy (THSA) in India.

Located in Hosur, Tamil Nadu, INL aim to shape 10,000 nutrition leaders in India by 2025.

INL and THSA have recently made a joint announcement about their partnership that increases opportunities for students / professionals by giving them the power of world-class evidence-based knowledge.

Dr Kanagaraj, PhD, CEO of Institute of Nutrition Leadership, added, "With this collaboration, now Indian professionals can specialise in Clinical Weight Loss, Nutritional Therapy, Advanced Fertility Nutrition, Advanced Child & Brain Development Nutrition, Nutrition for Cancer Prevention, Detox and Toxicology, Advanced Dietary Supplements, Stress Management, Sleep Management, Advanced Sports and Exercise Nutrition, Gut Restoration, Food Allergies and Intolerances, Research Techniques, and Lifestyle Medicine."
