Pietro has been CEO of the Marchesini Group for the past eight years

The Tetra Laval Group Board has appointed Pietro Cassani as President & CEO of Sidel effective 15 July 2024. Pietro will be based in Parma, Italy.

The appointment follows the decision by Monica Gimre to step down after more than five years as President & CEO of Sidel and 41 years in total with the Tetra Laval Group.

Pietro has been CEO of the Marchesini Group for the past eight years, and before that spent over 10 years as Group General Manager of SACMI. In total, he has over 30 years of business and engineering experience. He holds an Engineering degree from the University of Bologna and a Master of Business Administration degree from the SDA Bocconi School of Management.
