The Meyer Presta Collection has tri-ply stainless steel for uniform heat distribution

Pots and Pans has introduced the Meyer Presta Tri-Ply Pressure Cooker Collection. This is a reinvention of a staple found in nearly every Indian home. India’s pressure cooker market is poised to grow from $338.3 million in 2024 to $611.3 million by 2031, innovation in this space is timely and transformative.

The Meyer Presta Collection has tri-ply stainless steel for uniform heat distribution, three times the strength of conventional cookware and a sleek, modern aesthetic that complements every kitchen.
